REGULAR DIVISION
MAGISTRATE DIVISION
Court Administration

IN THE MATTER OF ADOPTION OF )
OREGON JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT )
COVID-19 PROTOCOL )
 ) ORDER

The Oregon Judicial Department has adopted a Protocol for COVID-19 Exposure or Symptoms, effective September 3, 2020 (the “Protocol”). The Protocol applies to the Oregon Appellate Courts and the Oregon Tax Court, regarding potential exposure involving members of the public present in the court's facilities and includes definitions and actions courts may take to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 and facilitate tracing in case of exposure. The Oregon Tax Court hereby adopts the Protocol.

The court also hereby adopts (1) a form of contact tracing log to be completed for each person visiting the court; (2) language for signage to be displayed in the court’s lobbies; and (3) a sign-in sheet to enable tracking of court employees (including judicial officers) when working at the court’s facilities. Copies of these three items and of the Protocol, as adopted, are attached. This order is effective immediately and applies for the duration of CJO 20-027 (as may be amended) or until the court orders it revoked or modified. Now, therefore,

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 22nd day of October, 2020.
